

of the death certificate has been given, the proprietor of the Commission given being applied to one of this morning heard further of Mr. and Mrs. Hodson. The child was born at Chorley, and the mother, Howard and Bullock, had been in Rochdale, where they had a residence. They lived in a temporary house in Chorley, and the child was born on the 17th of the year. They have been in several years.

CONGRATULATION.
About Mrs. Holden is that she is recovering. The child support for her, and blankets have been supplied. She is not sufficient even though still prostrated, and has frequently expressed to her friends that she is unable to do anything for her life. She is unable to do anything for her life. She is unable to do anything for her life. She is unable to do anything for her life.

N BARRACKS.
The Barracks, to be built in the Cavalry Barracks, will be completed in a few days after. The barracks will be completed in a few days after. The barracks will be completed in a few days after.

TOM'S RETURNS.
Paris, Wednesday. Tom's returns published in the Standard last year amounted to £1,000,000, compared with £1,000,000 in the year before. Tom's returns published in the Standard last year amounted to £1,000,000, compared with £1,000,000 in the year before.

DEATH AT CHORLEY.
The death of a young man at Chorley, Lancashire, is reported. The man was found dead in a field near Chorley. The death of a young man at Chorley, Lancashire, is reported. The man was found dead in a field near Chorley.

WINE FROM THE SHORE.
A quantity of wine from the shore was found in a cellar at Chorley. The wine was found in a cellar at Chorley. A quantity of wine from the shore was found in a cellar at Chorley.

of the death certificate has been given, the proprietor of the Commission given being applied to one of this morning heard further of Mr. and Mrs. Hodson. The child was born at Chorley, and the mother, Howard and Bullock, had been in Rochdale, where they had a residence. They lived in a temporary house in Chorley, and the child was born on the 17th of the year. They have been in several years.

WARDS FOR FLEETWOOD.
A committee of the County Council sat at the Town Hall, Fleetwood, to-day, to investigate the application of the Urban Council to have the Fleetwood district divided into wards, and the Council increased from 12 to 18 members.

SCHEME APPROVED BY THE COUNTY COUNCIL COMMITTEE.
A committee of the County Council sat at the Town Hall, Fleetwood, to-day, to investigate the application of the Urban Council to have the Fleetwood district divided into wards, and the Council increased from 12 to 18 members.

BARROW ASSOCIATION F.C.
A special meeting of the members of the Barrow Association Football Club was held last night, under the presidency of Mr. W. L. Smith.

STRAINED FINANCIAL POSITION.
A special meeting of the members of the Barrow Association Football Club was held last night, under the presidency of Mr. W. L. Smith. The Chairman said the committee were still swinging about in the same boat, but it was still leaking. They had done their level best to keep the ship afloat, and they were determined, if at all possible still to keep it going.

WINE FROM THE SHORE.
A quantity of wine from the shore was found in a cellar at Chorley. The wine was found in a cellar at Chorley. A quantity of wine from the shore was found in a cellar at Chorley.

law was that I had no objection on moral grounds being it. Mr. J. C. Hildie said he believed there was nothing to be done to cause the rising generation to pass through the Church of England back to Rome. The Rev. J. J. Fitch said they believed that the nonconformist churches would violate their consciences in the matter of the rising generation to pass through the Church of England back to Rome.

WARDEN'S REPORT.
The following abstract of the report of the Warden of the County of Lancashire, for the year ending 31st December 1904, was presented to the County Council at a meeting held on the 17th inst.

RAZOR IN EACH HAND.
An inquest was held at Morecambe last evening, before Mr. Holden, Coroner, on the body of Edward Delves, a retired Customs officer, who was found by his landlady lying on the floor of the bathroom, in a pool of blood, with his throat cut, and a razor grasped tightly in each hand.

EX-CUSTOMS OFFICER DETERMINED SUICIDE AT MORECAMBE.
An inquest was held at Morecambe last evening, before Mr. Holden, Coroner, on the body of Edward Delves, a retired Customs officer, who was found by his landlady lying on the floor of the bathroom, in a pool of blood, with his throat cut, and a razor grasped tightly in each hand.

MR. WINSTON CHURCHILL.
Mr. Winston Churchill, speaking last evening at a house dinner of the Manchester Reform Club, said that when the question was first raised Mr. Balfour and he had no settled conviction. It was tolerable that earnest men on either side should be the sport of such opportunities, and that Lord George Hamilton and Mr. Ritchie should be driven out of public life, not for the sake of a public cause, but for the convenience of party wire-pullers.

CHORLEY WEAVERS' ASSOCIATION.
The annual meeting of the Chorley and District Weavers' Association was held last evening, Mr. R. Riding presided. The widow and family of the late Mr. James Hutton, who for 35 years was an official of the association, forwarded a framed photo of Mr. Hutton, Messrs. W. Mellor and W. Carr spoke of the good work done by Mr. Hutton. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mr. R. Riding; committee, Messrs. W. Morris, J. Preston, J. Berry, auditor, Mr. R. Biscoe.

WORKING ON AND FREE PROPOSED ADVANCE.
At a meeting of the General Committee of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Amalgamated Weavers' Association, which is just to be held, the subject of the proposed advance in wages was discussed. The committee will, it is expected, place a date to be arranged between the parties any time within the month of the receipt of the report.

REPORT ON THE BENEFITS OF TRADE UNIONS.
The report speaks of the benefits of trade unions, and refers to those who keep aloof from the movement. It says that such conduct by the part of non-unionists is sufficient to make one wish that the members of Parliament would only let for the benefit of those who have looked and worked for the good of the country.

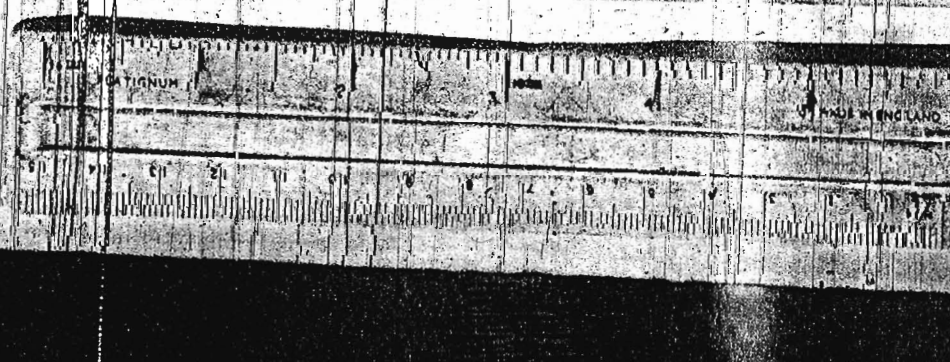

NOT BORN TO BE HANGED.
The Home Secretary wrote that Leo was going on the 10th at a salary of £100 a week.

MR. WINSTON CHURCHILL.
Mr. Winston Churchill, speaking last evening at a house dinner of the Manchester Reform Club, said that when the question was first raised Mr. Balfour and he had no settled conviction.

MR. WINSTON CHURCHILL.
Mr. Winston Churchill, speaking last evening at a house dinner of the Manchester Reform Club, said that when the question was first raised Mr. Balfour and he had no settled conviction. It was tolerable that earnest men on either side should be the sport of such opportunities, and that Lord George Hamilton and Mr. Ritchie should be driven out of public life, not for the sake of a public cause, but for the convenience of party wire-pullers.

MR. WINSTON CHURCHILL.
Mr. Winston Churchill, speaking last evening at a house dinner of the Manchester Reform Club, said that when the question was first raised Mr. Balfour and he had no settled conviction. It was tolerable that earnest men on either side should be the sport of such opportunities, and that Lord George Hamilton and Mr. Ritchie should be driven out of public life, not for the sake of a public cause, but for the convenience of party wire-pullers.

LANCASHIRE DAILY POST
17th of 18th JAN 1905

Vertical text on the right edge of the page, including names and dates, likely from a newspaper's masthead or a list of contents.