

BOLTON ABBEY MARRIAGE.

DENHOLME BRIDE AND BRADFORD BRIDEGROOM.

The wedding took place quietly at Bolton Abbey Church, to-day, of Mr. Allison Wynham Heselton (second son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Heselton, of Park Drive, Heaton, Bradford), and Miss Mary Delves (only daughter of the late Mr. Edward Delves, and of Mrs. Delves, Denholme). The Rector, the Rev. C. Tomlinson, officiated.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. F. W. Delves, wore a three-piece dress of champagne marocaine, with a brown hat, and carried a bouquet of tea roses. She was attended by Miss Marcia Mart, of Cleckheaton, who was attired in a dress of cinnamon georgette, with a hat to match and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums.

Captain R. B. Armistead, of Ilkley, was the best man. Following a reception at the Devonshire Arms Hotel, the bride and bridegroom left to spend their honeymoon in the South of France.

The wedding cake was supplied by Mr. F. E. Clarke, confectioner, 23, North Parade, Bradford.
