

HESELTON—DELVES.

At Belton Abbey Church yesterday the marriage took place of Mr. Allison Wyndham Heselton, second son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Heselton, of Final Royd, Park Drive, Heaton, Bradford, and Miss Mary Delves, only daughter of the late Mr. Edward Delves and of Mrs. Delves, The Bungalow, Denholme.

The church was decorated with flowers for the occasion and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. F. Tomlinson (Vicar). Appropriate music was rendered on the organ by Mr. E. Mitton.

Mr. R. B. Armistead (cousin of the bride) acted as best man.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Fred Delves, wore a dress of champagne marocain and large hat to match trimmed with brown feathers, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Miss Marcia Mowat, of Cleckheaton, attended as bridesmaid, and wore a dress of cinnamon brown with hat to match and carried bronze chrysanthemums.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Devonshire Arms Hotel. The honeymoon is to be spent in the South of France and Italy.

The wedding cake was designed and supplied by Mr. F. E. Clarke, confectioner, North Parade, Bradford.
