

DENHOLME FESTIVAL OF REMEMBRANCE.

The first Festival of Remembrance to be held at Denholme took place at the Mechanics' Institute there last night, under the auspices of the local branch of the British Legion. The service was presided over by Mr. F. W. Delves (president of the branch). The 6th Battalion Duke of Wellington's Regiment band was in attendance, and those taking part in the service were the Rev. E. A. J. Miller (Vicar of Denholme) and the Rev. Canon R. Whincup (Bradford). Mr. E. Whalley, of Keighley, who was the chief guest, addressed the gathering and appealed for increased support and members for the local branch of the British Legion.
