

HOUSE OF LORDS,
S.W.1.

7th July, 1958

Madam,

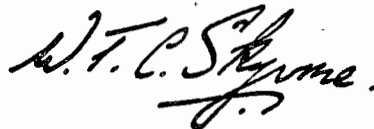

I am directed by the Lord Chancellor to send you the enclosed formal notification of your appointment as a Justice of the Peace. A booklet containing a brief outline of the work and duties of a Justice is also enclosed.

You will not be empowered to perform any act as a Justice until you have taken the Oath of Allegiance and the Judicial Oath. You will be informed in due course of the arrangements which are being made to enable you to take these Oaths. In the meantime, if there is any further information which you require regarding your appointment, kindly communicate with the Clerk to the Justices for your area.

The Lord Chancellor desires me to remind you of the undertakings which you have already given in respect of your appointment to the Commission of the Peace. His Lordship trusts that you will also make full use of the courses of instruction which are arranged by your local Magistrates' Courts Committee.

I am, Madam,

Your obedient Servant,
