Dear Chas.

Delighted to hear that you & family - less one - are having a good break at Cannes.

My only criticism - which please pass on with my love to Dorothy - is that I am just horrified at the callous & almost brutal way in which you are all leaving poor little Barbara on her lonesome here in England. It seems to me a crue desertion by the side of which the incidents of the Musgroves (was that the name of your neighbors so carelessly treated by their children?), let alone the Clark & Wsons, being left to themselves whilst their family go about their lawful occasions, seems negligible.

I'm thinking of writing to the Times about it, or even asking the Croydon Corporation to think again about the J.P.s

they put in office. It's another sign of the not generally admitted decadence of the country. done to you all
