My dear Niece

It is with the greatest pleasure we wish you "good luck"
this fine wedding day
as the most important change in ones life. So that before you go to Church make up your mind to live to your husband with love and affection, let your happiness be his

and your troubles share, you may not find it always like a bed of Roses, but if the Thorns do appear, share them together and you will find, to share the burden will be much lighter, try and please each other fall in with each others views, and make up your minds to both have a happy life, untill death do part. We hope you will have a nice journey and a safe return and may "God bless you both is the sincere wish of

Your aunt & Uncle
